

AFFORDABILITY

A Purdue student invoice is made up of various tuition and fee costs, which make up the total tuition for the University. The University breaks down specific tuition costs in order to be transparent as to where specific funds are directed and how they are utilized.

Some Polytechnic Institute locations host reciprocity agreements allowing qualified students from neighboring states to pay in-state tuition rates. Reciprocity agreements are listed below:

Richmond: Allen, Auglaize, Butler, Darke, Defiance, Fulton, Henry, Mercer, Paulding, Preble, Putnam, Shelby, Van Wert and Williams counties in Ohio.

Vincennes: All counties in Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan, Illinois

New Albany: Jefferson, Bullitt, Hardin, Henry, Nelson, Oldham, Trimble, Shelby, Spencer, and Meade counties in Kentucky

Scholarships

At Purdue, most merit scholarships are awarded to qualified freshmen based on academic information provided in the admission application. There may be scholarships that are available only to students enrolled at a certain Purdue Polytechnic location. These scholarships are awarded based on academic merit and/or need. To be considered for these scholarships, beginning and continuing students must submit a scholarship application each year of their attendance. Location-based scholarships are listed below.

- ANDERSON

John Eddy Scholarship

One continuing student at Purdue Polytechnic Anderson may receive $500 per academic year. The student must have and maintain a 2.75 GPA or better to qualify.

Bill Wylam Scholarship

1 or more annual scholarships for Purdue Polytechnic Anderson students who have demonstrated financial need as determined by Division of Financial Aid. Preference to students: who reside in Madison County and/or who are participating in a Senior Design Project of Internship.

Statewide General Scholarship Fund

$1000 award. Recipients must have a high school GPA of 3.00 or higher, have applied to Purdue Polytechnic Anderson and plan to take at least 9 credit hours.

John H. and Terri A. Dickey Scholarship
